

Just one cup of tea can make a difference to someone with MSA.

Raise a cup for MSA

*I wanted to host a Milk, Sugar And Tea Party as it was a great way of remembering my dear friend, William and raise awareness of this horrible disease and much needed funds.
Lizzie George, Manchester*

£5

could provide a family who is coming to terms with an MSA diagnosis with a vital support pack offering much needed information.

£50

could cover the cost of venue hire and refreshments for one regional MSA support group meeting to reduce the isolation that is often felt.

£20

could help give someone the emotional support they need, over the phone, from one of our MSA Nurse Specialists.

£150

could cover the daily cost of manning our telephone and email support service for anyone affected by multiple system atrophy.

£40

could pay for an hour of research towards the development of new and improved treatments for MSA.

£500

could supply an MSA Nurse Specialist at two MSA Clinics, to provide support to NHS staff and other healthcare providers.
